

WINDSOR PLANS LABOR PROBLEM STUDY IN U. S.

Duke and His Bride Are Planning Trip To America

ROLE AS KING'S ADVISOR IS SEEN

Approval of Ruler Himself Indicated In Announcement

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, Oct. 4.—The Duke of Windsor's intention to take his American bride to the United States today to study labor problems in her native land was believed by foreign observers today to open a broad, new political life for the labor-minded former British emperor.

The announcement that the duke and duchess would make a survey of housing and working conditions in Germany and the United States "soon" loomed a flood of speculation on Edward's future.

No Details Disclosed
Thomas H. Carter, a royal household official acting as his secretary, declined the plans in a formal statement yesterday. He declined, however, to answer any questions as to whether Windsor was preparing for a possible role in politics or would become an advisor to his brother and successor, George VI.

Some British quarters attached significance to the fact that the announcement was made by an official of the privy purse office—which they said, seemed to indicate King George himself probably had been consulted in advance and had approved Windsor's tour.

That theory was linked with a phrase from Edward's farewell radio speech when he pledged that, "if at any time in the future I can be found of service to his majesty in a private station I will not fail."

Observers predicted, however, the trip was certain to lift Edward from the limited social circle in which he has mingled since he abdicated the throne last December to marry the former Wallis Warfield, Baltimore divorcee.

Hit Housing Conditions
As the Prince of Wales and during his brief reign as king-emperor, Edward was notably concerned with the social welfare of his subjects.

On many occasions he assailed housing conditions of British workers. "The great mass of slum dwellings in this country," the then Prince of Wales declared in 1933, "are more than a century old. They are relics of a bygone idea of what was tolerable for the workman."

Last year, only a month before the storm which brought about his abdication, Edward visited the "black areas" of depression-oppressed south Wales. There, in a burst of feeling, he made his famous promise, "something will be done," words to which observers today added new significance.

With another week's stay in Paris his only known engagement, the duke is expected to start shortly on the tour with his wife of four months. The duke had told friends he intended to make a sentimental voyage to the Chateau de Candé, where he and the duchess were married last June 3.

Apparently, however, he became impatient with the aimless travel that has been the royal honeymoon in central Europe and determined quickly to re-enter the life for which his training as prince and king fitted him.

4 MAJOR STATE JOBS UNFILLED

Other Important Posts
Consolidated or Abolished

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, Oct. 4.—Four major state positions are unfilled, terms of two commission members have expired, and a survey showed today that three other important posts have been consolidated or abolished.

Since the resignation of Wade D. Van Ness of Columbus on June 15, the state highway department is without an auditor. The position pays $4,000 a year. Highway Director John Jaster, Jr., said that he did not have any one in mind for the position.

Kreiter Post Unfilled
The death of Louis H. Kreiter of Galion, deputy superintendent of insurance, on Oct. 1 left a $4,000 a year vacancy in the commerce department. No successor has been named.

A $3,000 per year position as assistant state fire marshal has been unfilled for many months, since the death of M. R. Limb of Wooster.

Director of Education E. N. Dietrich said the only major vacancy in the education department was that of the newly created elementary schools supervisor which pays $3,000 a year.

W. B. Francis of Martins Ferry, Belmont county, whose $4,000 a year position as chairman of the civil service commission expired Aug. 31, has not been reappointed and no successor has been named.

The position of Thomas M. Gregory of Columbus, chairman of the industrial commission, expired July 1. The position pays $5,000.

Francis and Gregory are expected to fill the positions and receive their salaries until they are reappointed or a successor named.

The major jobs abolished or consolidated include the position of gasoline tax chief, paying $4,000, abolished; cigarette tax division chief, $4,200 a year, consolidated with the excise tax division, and beer division chief, held by Milton S. Cox of McArthur, paying $4,500 a year, which was taken over Friday by Assistant Director Norman C. Parr.

Mahoning County's Road Funds Used

CANFIELD, Oct. 4.—Although Mahoning county will receive $113,472 this week from the state in its fourth distribution of automobile license revenues, the delay in receipt of the funds has so sharply curtailed activities of the county engineer's office that much of the county's big road program has been postponed until next year.

"We will complete as many projects as possible," County Engineer Robert Schomer said, "but many will have to be carried over to next year."

The county has already received $260,000 from the state this year, compared with $333,000 in the same period last year.

SUPREME COURT WILL HEAR CASE AGAINST BLACK

Levitt's Challenge to New Justice's Seat To Be Aired

RECORDS BROKEN
FOR ATTENDANCE

High Tribunal Prepares To Launch History-
making Term

BULLETIN
(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The supreme court deferred action today on a motion by Albert Levitt designed to compel Associate Justice Hugo L. Black to show cause why he should be permitted to sit on the high tribunal.

Whether the court will grant or deny the motion probably will be announced next Monday.

Action could be taken at any time, however. Proceedings were brief. Levitt merely arose and said he had submitted the motion asking permission to file a petition challenging the Black appointment. He did not read the motion.

"You may submit the papers," Chief Justice Hughes told him. Levitt acted a few minutes after Black had taken his seat on the high bench.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—A challenge of Justice Hugo L. Black's constitutional right to a seat started the supreme court today on a history-making new term and centered on another issue the uproar over his appointment.

Hundreds of persons sought entrance to the marble-trimmed courtroom to hear Albert Levitt, former federal judge in the Virgin Islands, try to convince eight of the justices that they should require their new colleague to prove his eligibility.

Court attaches said applications for admission to the chamber, which seats only about 300, broke all records.

Black Makes Appearance
The crowd was attracted not only by Levitt's argument but by the first appearance of Justice Black in the $11,500,000 building, less than three days after his unprecedented speech declaring he once joined and later resigned from the Ku Klux Klan.

Black, who spent the week-end in seclusion, gave no advance hint whether he would follow custom and take again the oath to administer justice impartially. He took that oath and one to uphold the Constitution shortly after the senate confirmed his nomination in August.

Levitt contended in his motion that there was no vacancy on the bench to be filled and that if there were, Black would be barred by the Constitution.

Retirement last June of Justice Willis Van Devanter, he argued, did not create a vacancy, since the jurist still is technically connected with the court. It would be necessary, Levitt asserted, for Van Devanter to sever his connection completely by resigning.

Also contended Black was ineligible because as a senator he voted for a bill which Levitt declared increased the emoluments of a justice by permitting retirement.

Carr's Score Tops Country Club Cards

With Salem's leading marksmen competing at Youngstown, amateurs had their day at the Salem Country club trap and skeet ranges Sunday.

C. S. Carr led in trapshooting, smacking 24 out of 25 birds for his best score.

Three Salem shooters gained honors in the trap event at Youngstown, held at the Mahoning Valley Gun club. R. C. McAllister was first in the Class D division with a score of 88 out of a possible 100, while C. S. Chisholm was second and C. Carnes third in Class C.

C. Hopkins of Youngstown with a score of 95, Chisholm broke 92 targets and Carnes 89.

E. Moyer of Pittsburgh won in Class A with a score of 97, while E. Harper of Youngstown was first in Class B with a similar score.

In the final match of a "dinner shoot" at the club yesterday, the team captained by Nate Hunt won over Dr. G. A. Roose's team to take the "dinner shoot," which consisted of four matches of combined trap and skeet shooting, will be announced tomorrow.

Salem Red Cross Takes Donations For China Relief

Salem people may contribute to the fund being sent to China by the American Red Cross for medical and hospital needs, Mrs. Myra Woodruff, executive secretary of the local chapter, was advised today by Cary T. Grayson of Washington, D. C., national chairman.

In a letter received by Mrs. Woodruff today, Grayson says that "I have now to report that the central committee of the American National Red Cross has voted an appropriation of $100,000 to assist in meeting the great needs which exist in China for medical and hospital supplies and services."

Appeals from the Chinese Red Cross and other organizations and committees have stressed the tragic distress among upwards of 300,000 refugees. Many hospitals, taxed to their utmost, have set up temporary quarters but are without adequate equipment and service. It is to aid in this situation that the appropriation of $100,000 was made.

"The central committee, in voting the fund, confirmed the authorization to chapters given in my letter of Sept. 3 to receive contributions for relief work in China."

Any contributions from Salem residents may be left at the office of the local chapter, in the Memorial building.

Compretta Named In Second Action

LISBON, Oct. 4.—Dominic Compretta of Wellsville was named defendant in a second suit filed Saturday in common pleas court in which $25,000 is asked for the death of Hettie A. Wells, East Liverpool.

Compretta is charged with responsibility for an auto accident occurring Aug. 29, 1936, in which Mrs. Wells lost her life. He is also facing an action brought by Julia Pringle, another passenger in the car occupied by Mrs. Wells. The latter suit petition for $8,500 damages for injuries sustained in the collision.

According to both petitions, a machine operated by the defendant crashed the other car near East Liverpool on Route 7. Mrs. Wells was instantly killed when the machine overturned, crushing her. Suit was filed by the First National bank of East Liverpool as administrators of her estate.

The plaintiffs claim Compretta was driving on the wrong side of the road and allege negligence.

"The Sage Of Potato Hill" Achieves "Absolute Triumph"

(By Associated Press)
ATCHISON, Kas., Oct. 4.—Edgar Watson (Ed) Howe, "the sage of Potato Hill," has achieved his "absolute triumph."

After a long lifetime of observing and writing about the foibles of plain people, the 84-year-old author, editor and philosopher died yesterday in his sleep of the infirmities of age, complicated by paralysis.

His death fulfilled his once expressed desire "my hope is to go one night after a hard day's work and never awaken. That would be the absolute triumph."

The funeral service will be held tomorrow afternoon at his home here—"Potato Hill"—with the ritual of the Episcopal church.

Mr. Howe was perhaps best known for his novel, "The Story of a Country Town," which he published in his own country newspaper office after other publishers had rejected it.

He founded the Atchison Globe in 1877 and retired from it 37 years later. His active mind, however, could not be at rest and he began publication of "E. W. Howe's" monthly, devoted to information and indignation. In this magazine, which Mr. Howe discontinued in 1933, appeared such pungent paragraphs from his pen as:

"All my life I have heard men clamoring for more rights. It has always seemed to me I exercise more rights than are good for me."

EXTRA SESSION IS HINTED IN F. D. R. ADDRESS

President Stops In Grand Forks, N. D., For Talk
On Crops

MENTIONS HIGH
COURT FIRST TIME

Disagrees With Its Ruling
Invalidating AAA Production Control

(By Associated Press)
By HAROLD OLIVER
GRAND FORKS, N. D., Oct. 4.—In an address strongly hinting at a special session of congress, President Roosevelt asserted today surplus crop control legislation "ought to be passed at the earliest possible moment."

Mentioning the supreme court—convening today for its fall term—for the first time on his western trip, he disagreed with its majority ruling invalidating the AAA form of production control. He also quoted excerpts from a letter from a retired member of that court—John H. Clarke—saying he saw "eye to eye" with the president as to his social-economic and peace program.

Rebukes "Doubting Thomases"
The President spoke in dedicating a federally-sponsored grand stand at the fair grounds, coming here from Fort Peck dam, Mont., where he rebuked "doubting Thomases" who had been critical of his objectives.

Declaring better land use in the arid regions and control of surpluses were the "two objectives" of his farm program, he told his Grand Forks audience:

"I feel certain that a majority in both houses of the congress will heed the wish of most of the farmers of the nation in enacting crop surplus control legislation. And it is my thought that legislation to ward that end ought to be passed at the earliest possible moment."

"Then, evidencing he might be thinking of a special session, he continued:

"Because this legislation was not passed at the last session, it is too late for it to have any bearing on the winter wheat which is now in the ground."

Hate Important
"Even after a bill is passed and becomes law on the signature of the President, it takes a month or two before it is humanly possible to set up the machinery in all parts of the country to carry out the provisions of the new law. If, therefore, new legislation is to affect the 1938 crops, haste seems to be important from every angle," he said.

The President did not mention his debated plan to enlarge the supreme court. In leading up to his criticism of the AAA decision, he said he believed it was "essential to our national economy that we have something to say about the control of the major crop surpluses."

The court, he said, had ruled in a divided opinion that the government could not make a contract with a farmer to fix his acreage upward or downward.

"I have never subscribed to the constitutional theory," he added, "that agriculture is a purely local matter and that it has, therefore, no national scope."

McCulloch's In SALEM 25 YEARS

Silver Jubilee Anniversary of District's Leading Store To Be Celebrated

A silver jubilee sale opening Tuesday marks the 25th anniversary of the R. S. McCulloch store in Salem.

The large store has been redecorated throughout the interior for this event and new display material has been installed. The room is painted white, which adds greatly to the light afforded by the large windows and skylight.

Other improvements made during the last year include the opening of a floor coverings department in the large basement.

R. S. McCulloch came to Salem in 1912 from Akron, purchasing the A. W. Jones store in the Pioneer block, now occupied by Arbaugh's furniture store. In 1920 he purchased the building now occupied by his store and soon enlarged it to take care of increasing business.

From a drygoods store, it has been expanded into a department store which draws customers from a radius of several miles, being regarded as the outstanding store in the shopping district.

IL DUCE REBUFS FRANCE, BRITAIN

Expresses "Most Fervent Wishes" For Rebel
Triumph

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, Oct. 4.—A message from Premier Mussolini expressing "most fervent wishes" for an Italian victory was considered today to have dashed the strong Anglo-French move to force withdrawal of Italian volunteers from the Spanish civil war.

The informed Italian press indicated Il Duce would turn down the French and British invitation to a three-power conference on ending aid to both Spanish factions despite a hint his refusal would bring a retaliatory opening of the French border to supplies of war for the Madrid-Valencia government.

No Change of Heart
London observers saw little evidence in Mussolini's note of congratulations to insurgent Generalissimo Francisco Franco of that change of heart which the British and French have tried to persuade themselves they had seen in his attitude since their determined stand at the Nyon conference brought Italy into the Mediterranean anti-piracy patrol.

There was still hope, however, that the reply would not be a blunt refusal to join France and Britain around a conference table at which there were only three chairs, but would be a suggestion that the question of withdrawal of volunteers as well as the whole Spanish problem be referred once again to the London 27-nation non-intervention committee.

Both London and Paris were awaiting the arrival of Il Duce's notes with ill-concealed impatience. It was expected within the next few days after Italy had conferred with Germany. Joachim von Ribbentrop, the German ambassador to London, planned to leave for Berlin this morning.

Russia Adds Anxiety
Both France and Britain have indicated they would block an effort to relegate the withdrawal of volunteers to the unwieldy non-intervention committee. The sudden attack made by Russia on the committee Saturday added to the diplomatic anxiety here.

Russia chose just the moment the Anglo-French invitation was dispatched to inform the committee members she no longer saw any useful point in complying with the regulations requiring her to embark observation officers on her ships bound for Spain. These international "policemen without clubs" are all that remain of the complicated machinery with which the nations of Europe sought to keep the Spanish civil war at least within the borders of Spain.

Woman Is Injured In Auto Collision

Mrs. Henry Buckman, of Beloit, was treated at Salem City hospital for head injuries Sunday afternoon after being struck by an automobile driven by Robert Louthier, 17, of Wellsville on Route 45, two miles north of Lisbon.

Sheriff's deputies said Mrs. Buckman was hit when she walked around her car parked at the side of the road. The fender of Louthier's machine knocked her to the ground. Her condition at the hospital today is reported fair.

COUNTY GRAND JURORS SUMMON MORE WITNESSES

Salem Justice of Peace,
E. Liverpool Court
Clerk Called

12 OTHERS WILL GIVE TESTIMONY

Court May Decide Wednesday As Arraignment Day

LISBON, Oct. 4.—As the September grand jury today continued its investigation of alleged gambling activities in Columbiana county, court attaches indicated Wednesday of this week may be selected for arraignment day.

A complete report of the grand jury may be forthcoming within 24 hours. A partial report, in which 31 indictments were listed, was returned by the jurors late Friday.

First Degree Charge
Counsel for Johannes Borgwardt, 23-year-old alleged slayer of Mrs. Ruth B. Cranston of Westville, is expected to be appointed within a couple of days. The unnaturalized German youth is charged with first degree murder.

Resuming its investigation of slot machine and the "numbers" rackets, the grand jurors today called Justice of the Peace William G. Rich, Jr., of Salem to testify.

Rich was summoned after publication of two articles in which he intimated he knew of violations in Perry township.

Another of 14 persons subpoenaed was Miss Sara E. McMillan, clerk of the municipal court at East Liverpool.

To Show Dockets
She was instructed to bring two East Liverpool criminal dockets, listing 64 gambling convictions, including three-time offenders, who are expected to be indicted under the "common gambling" law.

Although 14 subpoenas were ordered, only seven were served. The other persons involved could not be reached, it was learned.

Common Pleas Judge W. F. Lones ordered the grand jury to make a probe of gambling after Roy (Happy) Marino, paroled bank robber, was shot and killed near Rogers, Sept. 10, and an unidentified man was slain at Lisbon July 27.

Salem Lutherans Attend Session of League In Alliance

A group of Salem Luther league members and members of Holy Trinity English Lutheran church attended a meeting Sunday of the Canton-Youngstown federation of the league, headed by Dan Balan of Salem, in St. Paul's Lutheran church of Alliance.

Those present included: Dan Balan, who is president of the Salem branch, James Whiskers, William, Robert and Florence Hiltbrand, Anna Wiegand, Twila Myers, Alvin Robbins, Evelyn Tullis, Mildred Stielz, Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwin Resler, Misses Marie, Edna Berger, Rev. and Mrs. C. D. Keister and two children and Miss Sadie Schaefer.

During the afternoon session, in charge of the president, plans were completed for a campaign to be conducted during the next two years by the federation for funds to establish a medical center among the mountain people of Virginia. The goal will be $10,000.

A medical center has been founded in Shantung, China, with a fund of $10,000 contributed by the Luther league in the last two years, ending in 1937.

William Hiltbrand and Evelyn Tullis gave reports of the national league convention held in July in Springfield, which they attended as delegates.

The evening meeting featured an address and moving pictures given by Rev. Kenneth Killinger, mountain missionary in Virginia, in whose parish the medical center is to be established.

The next federation session will be held Dec. 5 in Trinity Lutheran church, Canton.

PULSE: ACCELERATED

Going back to the stated purpose of President Roosevelt's western journey—to take the nation's pulse—not to be away from Washington when Justice Black returned—it is probable that by this time he has found out what he wants to know.

The following paragraphs probably describe the President's principal observation. The first was written by Paul Y. Anderson of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, who accompanied Mr. Roosevelt to Seattle:

For several days the President has been listening to Democratic politicians and officeholders who told him the voters would remain indifferent to national issues as long as the federal government continued to pour out money for local projects.

The other paragraph, part of a syndicated wisecrack column, reads:

President Roosevelt, according to the papers, is "taking the public pulse" out west. And finding, apparently, that mention of federal funds for local projects still causes it to go about 10 beats faster.

It would be hard to find two better short histories of the new deal.

CARELESSNESS

Some of the common hazards of modern living probably cannot be removed, but they can be minimized.

For instance, it is probable that a shockingly large number of persons will continue to be killed and injured in traffic. Likewise, there will continue to be fires, with consequent loss of life and property.

But the thought which will be encouraged this week—national fire prevention week—is this: That many fires can be averted by carelessness.

It is true that most fires are caused because someone, somewhere, was guilty of carelessness. Fire loss is everybody's loss. It is subtracted from the national wealth. It is a hazard which probably never will be removed, but it is one which, according to those who have studied it, can be reduced greatly by common sense and ordinary caution.

Fire prevention week is an intelligent method of encouraging the wider exercise of these qualities.

THE HARD WAY

The Japanese know what the world is saying about their policy of terrorizing sections of China's population. Formal disapproval of the League of Nations may help them to see their position more clearly, however.

By indiscriminate bombing of civilian population in unfortified cities, by use of guns against persons with no means of self defense and by violent invasion of a country not at war with them, Japanese militarists have made themselves the up-to-date symbols of barbarism.

They will recall, many of them, that similar ruthlessness on the part of Germany's warlords turned world opinion against their cause in the World war. They will recall that the bombing of Madrid and other Spanish towns by Franco's fighters has stamped them as terrorists. They will recall that Italy, with its superior organization and implements, went to Ethiopia not as a conquering hero, but a bully.

It continues to be true, as Japan has been reminded by Chinese leaders, themselves, that there was no way to prevent peaceful and profitable penetration of China by Japanese commercial interests. For reasons which will be hard to explain to their children, Japan's warlords have chosen, instead, to invade with guns, bombs and terror, sowing seeds of hate and opprobrium that will curse them for generations to come.

NEW YORK DAY BY DAY

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Diary: Up and came Bob Davis' book about the Orient in which he relates coming upon a Capt. O. O. McIntyre in Pacific waters. And Earl Benham sent a spiffy bow tie from London which I shall wear when Hattie Bell Johnston rounds in to dinner to tell us of South Africa.

In the afternoon to drive along the Saw Mill River road, the air agreeably nippish. And I fell to thinking of persimmons, paw-paws and scent of burning leaves. Home and pleasant messages from C. B. Cochrane, the English producer, and Irving Berlin, and from Jay Price news Stuart and Henry are safe in Shanghai.

With Will H. Hays to dinner, he to his offices and we to see Paul Muni in the "Zola" film, brave, and provocative, and the Chief Justice, Mr. Hughes, sat across from us. And it struck me he was the most dignified looking gentleman ever I laid eyes upon. So to bed.

Good pictures are barometers of trade for drug stores near by. When there is a crack picture there

Mary Brown Warburton, whose recent tragic passing was attributed to a diet regime, was one of the vigorous figures who divided her allegiance between Broadway and Park avenue, where she was equally welcome. From a distinguished family, being a granddaughter of John Wanamaker, she liked all sorts of people and liked them gay. Few were so full of impulsive kindnesses and that almost everybody called her by her middle name, Brown, was significant. She did not come into a room, she zoomed in, and everything she did had the bucky of an entire girls' hockey team. She was the rare sort, born to the purple, who could high hand-shake with a Lady Vere de Vere or joke with the ostlers.

The movement gains among legitimate theater producers for a showless Monday. The idea is in line with the general five-day-a-week plan. Monday for years has been a box-office headache, and even hit shows are often "papered." On the other hand, Monday is the big night in the chintzy side-street theaters. People who have had their Saturday and Sunday night splurges are glad to get back to dainty food, candle glow and sizable dinner checks.

The worst case of "mike fright" in recent years was when Sherman Billingsley, the Stork club impresario, appeared with the Rudy Vallee outfit. Billingsley, anomalous to his calling, is always shy, but he had been carefully coached and thought he could go through with it without call for the pulmotor. But six minutes before scheduled to talk he began to resemble a statue in chalk and his voice fluted up to the thinnest of pip-squeaks. He gave a Camille-in-the-last-act-whisper that he couldn't go on and almost slumped to the floor. But old stagers in studio jitters bucked him over the line and with his first spoken word, the fog cleared and he was able to carry on like a veteran. Indeed, he did a few lines of ad libbing.

Ben Hecht and Charles MacArthur, among the most widely pressed agents of the play and movie scenario writing combinations, have decided to call it a day and go separate ways. Hollywood and Broadway are watching with interest just how MacArthur will react without a collaborator. He is reputed, as is George S. Kaufman, to be like a ship without a rudder, going it alone.

Bagatelles: Jack Johnson, ex-fight champion, likes a minute steak with onions for breakfast. . . . Helen Menken began as a kid actress with Gus Edwards. . . . Alfred Vanderbilt never escorts the same girl two evenings in succession.

Riposte: Jeff Davis, so called king of the hoboes, sent a telegram of congratulations to George Arliss. The latter, anxious to answer the telegram but not knowing the address of Davis, had his secretary phone Jim Tully's secretary. Jim Tully and Jack Dempsey do not like to be classed as hoboes. They were road kids—a distinction in tramp realms. So Tully, when Arliss' message was received, replied: "Wire him care of Emily Post."

SCABIES

SCABIES, as the doctors call it, is commonly known as "the seven-year itch." It is an annoying disease of the skin.

It is now 250 years since the discovery of the cause of this ailment. In 1687, Giovan Cosimo Bonomo, an Italian physician, reported that scabies is caused by a tiny parasite. This was named the "acarus scabiei" and to it can be traced the cause of the inflammation.

This was one of the first discoveries of a germ or parasite responsible for disease.

This particular disease is not nearly as prevalent as it was in Bonomo's day. Our freedom from it is due to the marked improvement in sanitation and hygiene observed throughout the world.

Common in War
It was all too common during the World war and was a source of great annoyance to soldiers. As a matter of fact, it may appear in communities where hygiene is strictly enforced, because one person who harbors the parasite may pass it on to many. The victim of scabies must not be accused of lack of personal hygiene and bodily attention. Even if he is unusually clean, he may contract it in a public place.

There is at first a marked itching of the skin, usually in those parts of the body where hair is found. It is not necessarily confined to such areas, but may affect other regions. The itching increases in severity and is worse at night. It may be so severe as to make the sufferer frantically scratch his skin for relief, and such effort results in further irritation of the skin.

The parasite can be identified by examining the skin with a magnifying glass. A small line ending in a speck will be observed. The speck is the "acarus scabiei."

Not Incurable
Do not be misled by the popular belief that scabies is an incurable affliction and must be endured for seven years before cure is possible. This is pure superstition and absolutely unfounded.

In treating the disorder a sulphur ointment is applied to the skin. This is used after a warm bath, preferably before retiring at night. In the morning another warm bath should be taken, vigorously scrubbing the body with a stiff brush and sulphur soap. This program should be repeated every day until there is no further sign of the parasite.

Since the disease is highly contagious, it is wise to discard all contaminated linens and towels. The garments of the sufferer should be washed separately and then carefully aired in the sun.

Answers to Health Queries
Mrs. A. B. Q.—I have had a "hammer toe" for a long time and up until now it has not bothered me, but now my large toe bends over on the "hammer toe" and that caused a bunion. This is very uncomfortable. Will you please tell me what to do.

A.—You should consult an orthopedic surgeon. He will advise you.

A Three Days' Cough
Is Your Danger Signal

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold, or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with any remedy less potent than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble and aids nature to soothe and heal the inflamed mucous membranes and to loosen and expel the germ-laden phlegm. Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, try Creomulsion. Your druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not thoroughly satisfied with the benefits obtained from the very first bottle. Creomulsion is one word—not two, and it has no hyphen in it. Ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

Miss Holderieth Is Bride Of H.L. Shears At Church

Rev. C. F. Evans officiated at the candlelight ceremony in the Christian church at 7:30 p. m. Saturday, uniting in marriage Miss Martha Jane Holderieth and Harold L. Shears. Vows were exchanged before an altar of garden flowers and candelabra.

About 50 friends and relatives attended the ceremony. Miss Mary Haldeman and Kenneth Shears, brother of the groom, were attendants.

Wed In Church At Sebring

Miss Elizabeth Helen Meyers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Myers of Alliance and Donald J. Antram, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Antram of North Georgetown, were united in marriage at 2 p. m. Sunday. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. O. C. Kramer, pastor in the Trinity Lutheran church in Sebring.

Miss Doris Meyers, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Frank L. King of Salem was best man. The single ring service was used. The bride wore a frock of stone blue crepe and corsage of Talleman roses. Miss Myers was dressed in a mahogany colored gown and her corsage was of Briar-cliffe roses.

The bride's mother wore black crepe and the groom's mother wore burgundy crepe.

About 50 relatives and friends attended a reception given at the bride's home, where a buffet lunch was served. Guests were from Canton, Cleveland, Chardon, E. Claridon, Salem, Dover, North Georgetown and Beaver Falls, Pa.

After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Antram will make their home on East Grant st., Alliance. The bride is employed as a stenographer by the Supreme Dairy Co., and the groom is employed as painter and decorator by Frank L. King.

Greenford, Winona Couple To Wed

Miss Ruth Coburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Coburn of Greenford, will become the bride of Myron S. Whinery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Whinery of Winona, on Saturday, Oct. 10.

The date for the wedding was announced at a dinner party given by Miss Coburn's sister, Mrs. George Frank, at her home on South Lincoln ave., Saturday evening.

Thirty guests were seated at a table decorated in orange and brown. Garden flowers and favors attached to a bridal centerpiece made the table attractive.

Guests presented Miss Coburn a shower of kitchen gifts following the dinner. The evening was spent informally.

Miss Coburn, graduate of Greenford High school, is employed in the office of the Salem China Co. Mr. Whinery, who graduated from Salem High school, is employed by the E. W. Bliss Co. Miss Coburn and Mr. Whinery are graduates of the Salem Business college.

Birthday Party At Bush Home

A surprise party was given Saturday afternoon at the home of Myrtle Ileen Bush, East State st., the occasion celebrating her sixth birthday anniversary.

SUPREME COURT TO MEET TODAY

Levitt's Challenge to New Justice's Seat To Be Aired

at full pay after becoming 70 and serving 10 years. (The Constitution forbids congressmen to accept positions whose emoluments they have helped enact.)

Van Devanter retired under the provisions of this legislation and still is subject to duty on lower federal courts if needed and if he is willing to serve. Black was appointed by President Roosevelt to succeed him.

What the justices would do with Levitt's motion was the big question-mark of the first session.

As the justices reassembled at the end of a four-month recess President Roosevelt was returning to Washington from his journey to the far west.

No Visit to White House

His absence prevented the justices from making the customary visit to the White House after the opening session to pay their respects to the President. He was out of the city last year also.

Mr. Roosevelt will have luncheon in Chicago tomorrow with Cardinal Mundelein, one of the four highest officials of the Catholic church in the United States. The two men are old friends, but observers here wondered if the meeting had any special significance coming the day after Justice Black—by his own statement a former Klansman—ascends the bench.

It was generally conceded the action taken by the court on administration cases this term would be an important factor.

DEATHS

WILLIAM ATKINSON

EAST PALESTINE, Oct. 4.—A former Washingtonville resident, William Atkinson, 68, died at his home here at 5 p. m. Sunday of complications following a long illness.

Mr. Atkinson was a member of the East Palestine Masonic and Odd Fellows lodges.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Eliza Lawton Atkinson; three sons, William of Kansas City, Mo., John of Berea and Charles of East Palestine, and two daughters, Mrs. Thomas Aikenhead of Sebring and Miss Jennie Atkinson, at home.

The funeral service will be held at the home at 2 p. m. Wednesday. Burial will be in Washingtonville cemetery.

DELBERT L. DALES RITES

Funeral service was held at 2 p. m. Friday at the Arbaugh funeral home here for Delbert Leo Dales, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dales of Farmdale, Trumbull county. Dales, a sophomore in Gustavus school, near his home, was a former Salem resident. He was killed when struck by a truck as he was returning from school on his bicycle Tuesday.

Burial was in Grandview cemetery. The large number of friends and relatives from Cleveland, Chagrin Falls, Bainbridge and Farmdale included schoolmates from Bainbridge and Gustavus schools. Others attending the service were from Johnstown, Pa., East Liverpool, Wellsville, Canton, Lisbon, Youngstown, Leetonia and Salem.

MRS. JAMES A. MATZENBAUGH

Mrs. James A. Matzenbaugh, 78, died at her home, west of Washingtonville, at 8 p. m. Sunday.

Mrs. Matzenbaugh, the former Annie E. Charlton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Charlton, was born at Guilford, Nov. 2, 1859. She moved with her family to the Washingtonville district many years ago. She was married Jan. 26, 1879. Her husband died 13 years ago. She was a member of Trinity Lutheran church, Washingtonville.

Seven children survive: Mrs. O. H. Smith of Columbiana; Mrs. Joseph Kindig and Mrs. Charles Maxwell of Greenford; Mrs. Russell Jacques of East Palestine; Joseph, Leroy and Guy at home.

Rev. G. D. Keister of Holy Trinity English Lutheran church will conduct funeral service at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday at the Arbaugh funeral home. Burial will be in Grandview cemetery here. Friends may call at the funeral home from 7 to 9 p. m. Tuesday.

Held In Attack

DOVER, Oct. 4.—Police Chief F. H. Javens said today that a 19-year-old Negro accused of attacking a white woman and beating her husband was being held secretly in a jail near here as a precaution against possible mob violence.

Javens said Forrest Lanier, taken to a hospital with critical injuries, told him the Negro struck with a shotgun and then attacked his wife. The youth was arrested.

Theater Attractions

Dick Powell and Fred Waring and his orchestra are featured in "Varsity Show," a new musical comedy which will be seen tonight and Tuesday at the State theater.

Included in the stellar cast besides Dick Powell and Fred Waring are such leading figures as Ted Healy, Lee Dixon, Priscilla Lane, Rosemary Lane, Buck and Bubbles, Walter Catlett, Johnny Davis and Roy Atwell. Busby Berkeley, known for his imaginative and lavish production numbers in past Warner Bros. musicals, outdoes himself in "Varsity Show" with a smashing finale that climaxes more than an hour of supreme fun and amusement.

The plot of the picture deals with the efforts of Chuck Daly (Dick Powell), a Broadway producer temporarily on his uppers, to stage the annual Quadrangle club show at Winfield college. Daly, himself a Winfield alumnus, is induced to return to the college to rescue the varsity show from the hands of a Winfield alumnus, is in (Walter Catlett), faculty advisor, who is all for and nothing for modernity in school presentations. Daly overcomes many obstacles set before a successful production by Professor Biddle, jabs members of the cast through special scholastic examinations and then figures in a student strike brought on when Biddle ousts him from the campus. The undergraduates take matters into their own hands. The show must go on.

Grand Has "Dead End"

The Grand theater, celebrating its opening after complete redecorating, offers one of the best of the recent films. "Dead End," taken from the stage play of the same name.

Sylvia Sydney, Joel McCrea, Claire Trevor, Wendy Barrie, Humphrey Bogart, Allen Jenkins and the same boys who played "the gang" roles in the stage production, are in the cast.

Miss Sydney has her greatest role as Drina, the girl who valiantly fought a losing battle to keep her little brother Tommy from the gangster's fate ahead of him and to raise them both out of the slums.

Great Cast

McCrea is seen as Dave, the poor architect she loved, who dreamed of tearing down all the tenements in the world, and loved the beautiful Kay, played by Wendy Barrie, who had found a way out of the slums into penthouse luxury.

Humphrey Bogart plays "Baby Face Martin," the killer, drawn back from his gangland haunts to the slum where he was spawned, by an irresistible yearning to see his mother and his boyhood sweetheart, Francey, once more — who faced the cold steel of the G-men's bullets, all to find that his mother hated the very sight of him and that Francey had taken life the easiest way.

CLEANING CUTS CLOTHES COST

And Apparel Can Always Be Stylish If Done At Paris

Clothing that receives regular cleaning attention, by qualified cleaners, costs less in the long run, regardless of the initial expense than cheap wearing apparel.

Clean clothing wears months and months longer, so cleaning bills are actually repaid in this longer use.

The man who always appears well groomed is most likely to succeed. Good clothes give him confidence and those with whom he comes in contact hold respect for him.

Every woman knows that it is not entirely the cost of a gown that commands attention but she does know that it must be pressed exactly right, hang from the shoulders just so or mould itself to the lines in the right way.

The Paris Cleaners know their work demands the most painstaking treatment in finishing all work after the perfect cleaning process is completed. Every effort to follow the trends of fashion is made and the result is not only a clean garment but one that equals the factory's style effort.

Unloading Equipment at Citizens Ice, Coal Plant

The quality, itself, of the coal you buy and the way it's handled, are important factors in the successful operation of your heating plant.

The Citizens Ice & Coal Co., guarantees both. The local plant specializes in high-grade fuel, stressing the fact that good coal, in the long run, is more economical than the cheap variety.

In the picture above is shown special equipment used at the Citizens Ice plant for unloading from freight cars. The conveyor, which revolves in a semi-circle before a variety of bins, places each type of coal in its own particular bin, cleaning it at the same time.

FORD V-8'S WIN IN ARGENTINE

Capture First Four Places To Defeat 64 Other Cars

DEARBORN, Mich., Oct. 4. — Ford V-8s captured the first four places in the 1937 Argentine Grand Automobile race, the Ford Motor company here announced today, defeating 64 other cars in the strenuous 4279-mile road race which is South America's premier motoring event.

Angel Lo Valvo, 30-year-old grain dealer, received an ovation from a great crowd at the finish line in La Plata when he sped across in first place in his 1937 Ford V-8.

Three other Ford V-8s flashed over the line to win second, third and fourth places before a car of another make completed the hard-fought contest.

Averages 53.130 Miles

Lo Valvo averaged 53.130 miles an hour over mountains and plains, through sand and mud, in covering the route through 14 Argentinian provinces and two of its territories. Ford officials were notified by cable.

The fast pace of the race and the gruelling character of the course shown by the fact only 19 cars out of the 69 of various makes which started the race were able to finish. Nine of the 19 finishers were Ford V-8s, and another was a Ford Model A. The Model A was driven by Antonio Pereyra, who captured third place in the same four-cylinder Ford in the 1935 race.

The race was run in "laps" between 10 control points, one lap being run daily. Lo Valvo's driving time for the 4279 miles was 80 hours, 36 minutes and 21 seconds, and his performance won him $6,600 posted by the Argentine Automobile club and $3,000 offered by Ford dealers.

Won 7 Out of 10

Seven of the ten prizes for the fastest time between control points went to Ford V-8s, and a Ford V-8 also carried away first honors for the fastest lap of the entire race. This prize was won by Ricardo Risatti, who clicked off 666 miles at an average of 72 1/2 miles an hour from the start of the race in Buenos Aires, through Pergamino, San Nicolas, Rosario, and Cordoba to the first control point at Santa Fe.

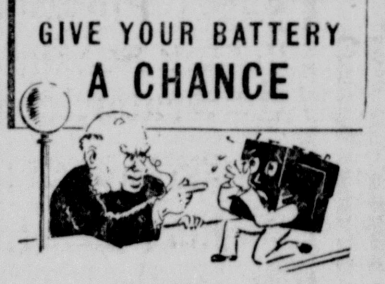

Enormous crowds watched various stages of the race, and newspaper and radio accounts of it were followed eagerly by race enthusiasts in Argentina, Chile and Uruguay.

Carlos Garbarino was the second place winner. Eduardo Pedrazzini, Ford dealer in San Nicolas, was third, and Hector Supplici Sedes, of Uruguay, was fourth.

A feature of this year's race was that most of the contestants, including the winner, drove closed cars.

WASHER OUTPUT TO BE BOOSTED

Salem Home Equipment, Inc., Representative In Salem Area

Setting a new pace for expanding industry, General Electric recently moved into their new, and what is believed to be the world's finest equipped, home laundry equipment plant at Bridgeport, Conn., it was announced today by Salem Home Equipment, Inc., Salem district distributor.

Recently purchased from the Remington Arms company, General Electric's new facilities will increase floor space for washer production by 36 per cent and provide an even greater increase in warehouse and shipping capacity.

From Munitions to Washers

Where once tons of munitions were made and stored for war, new G-E washers and ironers will be manufactured at the rate of one per minute of each manufacturing day.

The new washer plant extends almost the entire length of two city blocks and covers an area approximately that occupied by Radio City and Empire State buildings combined.

The wire, alone, conducting power and light in this plant, if measured in miles, would stretch three times the distance between New York and Bridgeport. The washers produced in one working day in this new plant will supply clean clothes for over three thousand people.

Using the new automobile type assemblies, raw material from freight cars at one end of the plant moves on 1,000 feet of conveyors through each step of the moving assembly lines to become finished washers and ironers ready for loading on freight cars for shipment to all parts of the world.

Along the three assembly lines are four large sound-proof booths, where a careful inspection is made to insure proper adjustment and quiet operation.

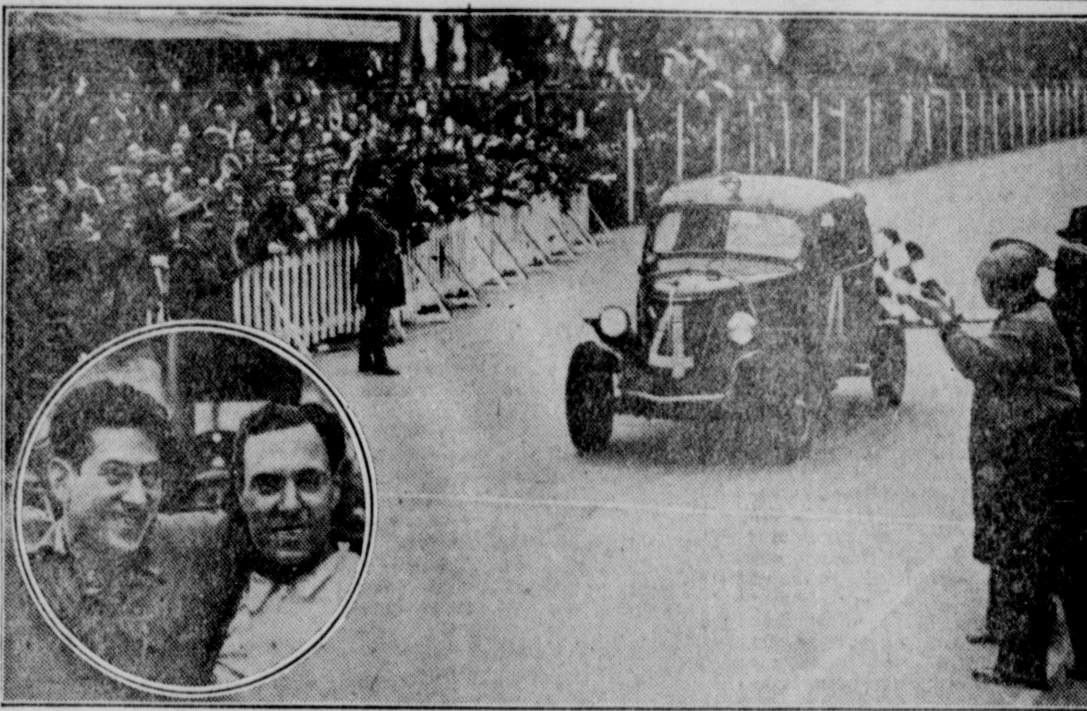

Over 10,000 parts pass daily through the huge Hobart "washer to washer" parts to be thoroughly cleaned before assembly. From here they go to the "bonderizer" to receive the rust-resisting film over which lacquer finish is baked, and the finishing operation is completed in eleven water-backed spray booths. In each booth, hydraulic pressure raises the washer on a turntable to a height of 36 inches, eliminating all lifting by human effort. All unused spray in the spray booth is drawn by air pressure into a "rain shower" at the back of the booth.

Precision Manufacture

Precision manufacture is maintained here with new modern machinery, lathes, drill presses, horn presses, Logan air presses, centerless grinders and rolling machines. Over 70 tons of machinery are required to turn out the finished product.

At the north end of the plant storage space for 10,000 washers is

Ford V-8s Score Clean Sweep in Argentine Road Race

FORD V-8s finished first, second, third and fourth in the 4279-mile Argentine Grand Automobile Race for 1937 in which 69 cars of a dozen well-known makes competed. Part of the throng which cheered the winner, Angel Lo Valvo, as he swept over the finish line in La Plata in his V-8 coupe is shown above. Lo Valvo's driving time for the rugged course, over highways and mule paths, mountains and plains, was 80 hours 36 minutes, an average of 53.13 miles an hour. Only 19 cars finished, and 10 were Fords, including one Model A. (Insert) Lo Valvo, in white, and his mechanic smile over their smashing victory.

available, and additional storage is provided by conveyor communication with the adjacent buildings.

Offices for sales, engineering, sales promotion and advertising, experimental laboratories, accounting, purchasing and the "Home Laundry Institute" are directly adjacent and connected with the washer-ironer factory, placing under one roof all facilities for the development, manufacturing and sale of modern home laundry equipment.

Major League Season Closes After 5½ Months Of Action

BEES PRODUCE BIG SURPRISE OF '37 SEASON

New York Host to Second Straight Championship Series

Associated Press Sports Writer
The 1937 major league season is a matter of history, with only the World Series chapter still to be written, but up and down the big time a lot of the things that happened in the last 5½ months won't be forgotten in a hurry.

Aside from little old New York's second-straight championship monopoly, the developments that seem standouts as you look back over the campaign were its success from a financial viewpoint, the epidemic of injuries that hit every club in both leagues, the big surprise that was pulled out of the hat by the Boston Bees and the high-class wallowing of Ducky Medwick and Joe DiMaggio.

When the books are written off on this season, there seems little doubt that it will top any post-depression mark in fan turnout and financial return. Except in few instances, attendance reports through the season have shown distinct improvement.

Riding high on the strength of their batting might, the New York Yankee Murderers' Row had little trouble finishing 13 games in front in their pennant chase during the season, largely because the rest of the American league fell apart at their approach.

Their neighbors across the Harlem, the Giants, found the going tougher, but once they climbed into the saddle, there was no stopping them. This became particularly apparent when the last of a long series of injuries deprived the Chicago Cubs of their first baseman, Rip Collins, in early August, definitely confining the Cubs to second place. The Giants wound up with a 4-1 win over their best-hated pals, the Brooklyn Dodgers, yesterday.

An injury also took whatever fight there was in the Detroit Tigers. When an accidental beanball fractured Mickey Cochrane's skull and removed him permanently from the playing scene, a large part of the Tiger strength was gone.

Otherwise, the fine showing of Jimmy Dykes' Chicago White Sox in upsetting the dope by winding up third in the American league, finishing with a 2-0, 7-2 doubleheader win over the last-place Browns yesterday, stood out in the American league.

But the major job of fooling the experts was turned in by the Boston Bees and Manager Bill McKechnie. Rated a seventh or eighth place outfit, they finished just a game out of fourth place on the strength of two 20-game pitching rookies, Lou Fette, who hit the 20-mark yesterday with a 6-0 shutout over the Phillies, and Jim Turner.

The National league cellar was "won" by the year's biggest bust, the Cincinnati Reds, who absorbed a 4-3, 4-0 twin defeat at the hands of the Pirates yesterday, winding up the nightmare their pre-season dream had become.

The Cardinals, minus Dizzy Dean who was of no use after having a hand in the National league's loss to the American leaguers in the All-Star game, just made fourth place, dropping their finale to the Cubs, 6-4.

Boston's Red Sox again were the "gold flops" for Tom Yawkey and finished fifth. Their finale was a 6-1 beating at the hands of the Yankees yesterday.

Cleveland's Indians again were a disappointment and rode in with fourth place. Johnny Allen, who had won 15 straight since recovering from illness, dropped the season's windup, 1-0, yesterday to the one-hit pitching of Jake Wade for the Tigers.

Washington's Senators and the Athletics, neither of which was ever in the race, split their last doubleheader, the A's taking the first game, 5-4, and losing the second, 4-3.

MINERVA WHIPS COLUMBIANA HI

Wiand Gridders Suffer 1st Grid Defeat In More Than Year

COLUMBIANA, Oct. 4.—Coach Jimmy Wiand's Columbiana High school gridders suffered their first football defeat in more than a year Saturday when they lost out to Minerva, 21 to 0, in a Tri-County league game here.

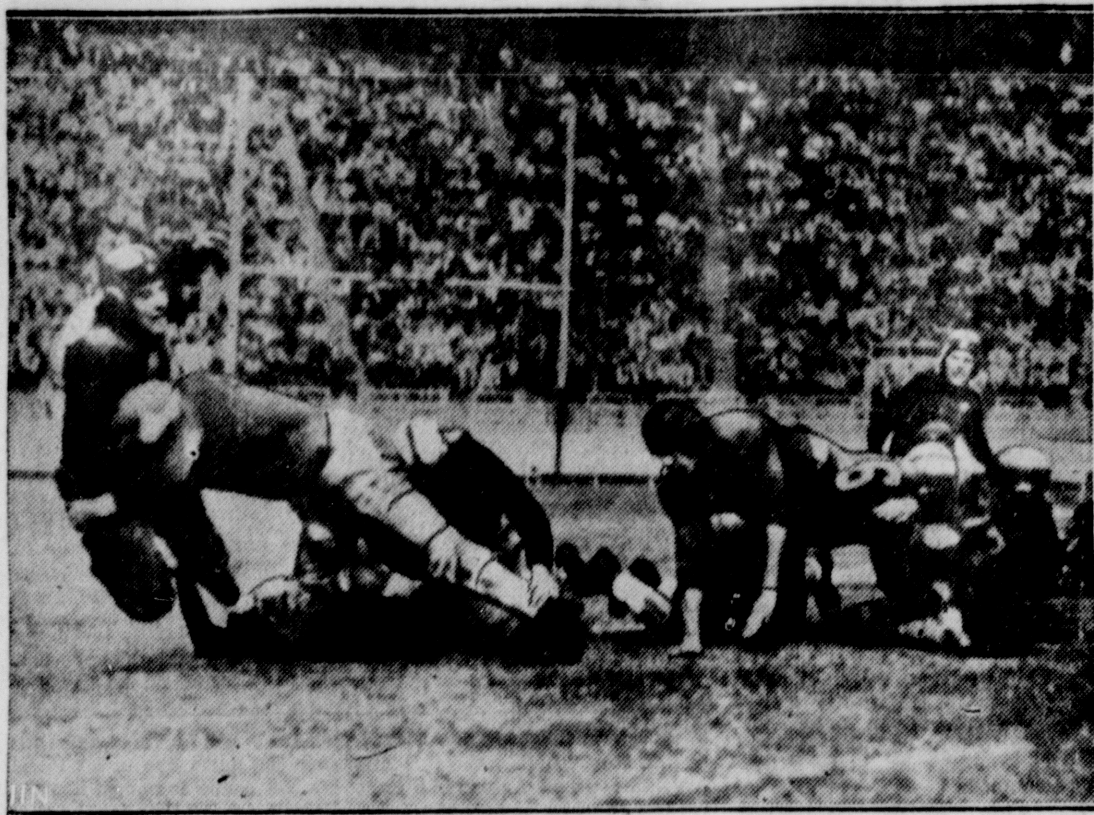

Minerva used nothing but straight football throughout the contest, Draher scoring two of the touchdowns and Hoopes the other. Miller accounted for all three extra points on passes.

Columbiana's passing attack was stopped cold as was its running attack. Wiand's gridders failed to make a first down. It was Minerva's third straight victory.

SINGAPORE.—The fighting in China has caused a 20 per cent rise in the price of rice sold on the Singapore market, one of the largest in the Far East. Millions will suffer, because rice is the staple foodstuff of countless Asiatics and forms the largest item in most family budgets.

GIANTS, YANKEES SET FOR SERIES

Record Crowd Expected To See Opening Tilt Of World Series

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Whether you're excited about it or not, the Giants and the Yankees are going to be at it again day after tomorrow, seven falls to a decision.

Indications are that a record crowd of near 70,000 will be crammed into the enlarged Yankee ball park when Carl Hubbell, the Giants' old reliable, wanders out there and starts wheeling his screwball across just like he did a year ago.

All the other trappings are so familiar that some fan is bound to remark that he believes "this is where he came in."

The only thing that might be altered somewhat is the eventual result. Last time the brutish Yankees slapped the ears off their little playmates from across the Harlem river in six games. The Giants, hot as a baked potato right now, don't think that will happen again, but most of the so-called smart money around Broadway thinks it will.

Everything else is about as usual. Bill Terry, manager and master mind of the Giants, has recovered from a siege of influenza and will be in there matching wits, as the boys say, with Marce Joe McCarthy of the Yankees.

The opposing box offices are running neck-and-neck. The Yankee office announced two days ago it didn't have a box seat left, for any game, and late last night Secretary Ed Brannick of the Polo Grounds revealed triumphantly that he did not have any either.

Breezy Briefs Of Sport From Brietz To You

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Seems the Giants and Yanks just can't wait. Right now they're embroiled in as bitter warfare as they'll stage starting Wednesday. All over hotel rooms, too. For two years several members of the Yanks, including Frank Crosetti and Joe DiMaggio have made their New York homes at a hotel, hard by Central Park, (where Jimmy Braddock headquarters). With the opening of schools last month, 14 Giants (Mel Ott among them) holed in at the same inn. Somebody has got to move, for if there is anything against Judge Landis' rules it is for players on opposing world series teams to stop at the same hotel. Both sides refuse to evacuate. So what, judge?

Brothers, it was quite a football day. Minnesota getting its bumps was the big news of course. (Awed what a way for good old Biff Jones to break in at Nebraska). If Minnesota and St. Paul papers hadn't had their own war correspondents at Lincoln they never would have believed what happened. Where did Cornell get that line it trotted out against Colgate? Cornell old grads, celebrating for the first time in years, don't give a hoot where they got it.

Looks like Howard Jones will have to postpone Southern California's comeback for another year. Army gave Columbia, Notre Dame, Navy et al something to think about with its clean cut win over Clemson which is plenty tough. One more up: Don't worry about all those team Dr. Lou Little is shedding up at Columbia. He'll do all right, too.

First world series arrival is Casey Stengel. He wasn't in town an hour before he was carrying a banner in the line picketing a Brooklyn newspaper plant. Fort Worth got into the Texas league playoffs with Oklahoma City with three pitchers aged 44, 42 and 33 respectively. After being tossed by his books at two universities, Orville Matthews, Oklahoma's million dollar backfield prospect, has chucked the coltish game and found a home with Gloomy Gus Henderson's Los Angeles pro Bulldogs. First football casualty at Loyola (New Orleans) was Catherine Bourg, cheer leader, who fell off a platform while shouting the key for a rousing "Sis, Boom, Bah!"

The immediate need of the Cincinnati Reds may be a manager, but the fans out there think it might not be a bad idea to get some players for the manager to manage.

TINSLEY STAR OF CARDINALS' GRID VICTORY

Scores Touchdown Which Defeats Cleveland Rams, 6 to 0

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Gaynell Tinsley apparently isn't content to just win his spurs as a National Professional Football league "freshman"—he straps them on for every battle.

The husky All-American end from Louisiana State, who has blazed a brilliant path through the pro-league ranks from the start of the season, gave another demonstration yesterday of his right to be hailed as one of the standout first-year men of the season.

In the second period of the Cleveland Rams-Chicago Cardinals game before 19,000 fans at Cleveland, Tinsley scooped up a fumble by Harry Mattos and ran, stumbled and battered his way 20 yards for the touchdown which gave the Cardinals a 6 to 0 victory.

It was the second time in 10 days that Tinsley provided the Cardinals with their margin of victory. He scored all three touchdowns as the Cardinals whipped Washington on Sept. 24.

Green Bay's champion Packers, who had lost two games, came back with a rush which swept Detroit's Lions to a 26 to 6 defeat. The Packers scored in two minutes of the opening period, added another marker in the third and got two more touchdowns in the final stanza, one on a 70-yard run by Milt Gantenbein, who had taken a short pass from Bob Monnett. A 23-yard aerial to Earl (Dutch) Clark gave Detroit a touchdown in the second quarter of the contest, played at Green Bay before 17,553 fans.

The New York Giants whipped Philadelphia 16 to 7, one of the features being Emmett Mortell's 88-yard return of a Giant punt to set the stage for a short touchdown pass to Bill Hewitt. The score put the Eagles ahead 7-3. Hank Soar having booted an 18-yard field goal for the Giants, but the New Yorkers came back to score touchdowns in the second and fourth periods. The final Giant marker was on an 18-yard run by Ward Cuff, former Marquette university star.

Washington's Redskins, scoring a second period touchdown, defeated Brooklyn 11 to 7 in the rain before 16,000 fans at Washington. Sammy Baugh, who is doing all right by himself in his first year in the pro ranks, whipped a short pass to Wayne Miller, who scampered 15 yards for the Redskins touchdown. Riley Smith booted a field goal for Washington in the third stanza, and in the final period Turk Edwards blocked a Brooklyn punt and McChesney fell on the ball past the end zone for a safety.

Brooklyn's touchdown came in the final quarter on Nori's pass to Barrett.

This week's schedule:
Monday: Chicago Bears at Pittsburgh.

Sunday: Philadelphia at Washington; Green Bay at Chicago Cardinals; Chicago Bears at Cleveland; Pittsburgh at Detroit.

Whitney Will Quit Racing For While

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The Eton blue silks of the Whitney stables are to be retired temporarily from racing, according to an announcement made yesterday by Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney.

Whitney said his retirement was due to lack of time to devote to it. He will dispose of his entire string of race horses, including such famous animals as the Chief and Dauber, which ran in the Belmont futurity, Saturday. The Whitney stud farm will be continued, however, Whitney said yesterday he may return to racing eventually.

13 Ohio College Grid Teams Remain Unbeaten And Untied

At Least Four of Teams Due To Crash From Select List During Buckeye Games This Week

COLUMBUS, Oct. 4.—At least four of the 13 Ohio college teams which escaped being tied or defeated in the first two weeks of the current grid campaign are due to crash out of the select circle next weekend as the leaders stage early-season "get-togethers."

Heidelberg and Muskingum, with two victories each, toss their records on the block at New Concord Friday night in a contest which will shove one squad out of the Ohio conference race.

Kenyon and Oberlin, winner of one each, tangle at Gambier Saturday, while Baldwin-Wallace and John Carroll, the former with two victories and the latter with one, meet at Cleveland Friday night. Each of those contests, too, will send someone clattering out of the Ohio conference championship picture.

Over in the Buckeye loop Marshall's three-time victorious "Thundering Herd" invades Oxford to meet the co-champion Miami club, which has rolled up 102 points in winning its two starts.

COLUMBUS HAS SERIES EDGE

Red Birds Boast Three Victories In Little World Series

COLUMBUS, Oct. 4.—The Newark Bears, International league champions, were slight favorites over the Columbus Red Birds, pennant winners in the American association, today as the two teams prepared for the fifth game of the 1937 Little World Series under flood lights tonight after a day of idleness because of rain.

Although holding a three to one edge over Newark in wins, Columbus will enter tonight's game handicapped by the absence of Captain Jimmie Jordan, crack second baseman, who suffered a fractured right leg Saturday night while attempting to complete a double play. The Bears drove in eight runs while holding Columbus to a single tally in the Saturday fray, to chalk up their first victory of the series. The Red Birds made a clean sweep of the first three games at Newark. Sunday's game was postponed.

Johnny Chambers will start on the mound for the Red Birds, opposing Altee Donald, whose International league record this year lists 19 victories and only two defeats.

Basketball Loop Changes In Name

DAYTON, Oct. 4.—The Midwest Basketball conference, which only changed its name to National Basketball league at its fall meeting here over the weekend, but it also renamed M. Gefsky, Pittsburgh, president, and reiterated its intention of retaining the center jump this season.

Expecting its biggest season, the league altered its name in order to avoid any confusion with the Big Ten conference, often referred to as the "Midwest conference."

The league's franchise with Jack M. West operated here last year, has been transferred to Richmond, Ind., and new franchises were awarded to Kankakee, Ill., and Buffalo, N. Y.

A new Dayton club headed by Bill Hosket, ex-Ohio State star, is expected to take the sixth western franchise, vacated by Chicago.

GOPHERS PREP FOR COMEBACK AFTER DEFEAT

Establish Ohio State As Title Threat In Big Ten Loop

By EARL HILLIGAN
CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Nebraska's gain shaped up as Indiana's loss today.

Minnesota's Golden Gophers—grim as they were chastened—settled down to a week of hard work trying to forget that 14 to 9 tarnishing they took from the Nebraskans Saturday and looking ahead to taking it out on Indiana's Hoosiers at Minneapolis next Saturday.

Coach Bernie Bierman described the Gopher's play against the Cornhuskers as "sluggish," and if work will turn the trick, the poker-faced mentor will have his Minnesota machine well-oiled for its next tilt. It's possible—in view of an apparent lack of intelligent field generalship—that Bierman may do some experimenting.

Indiana, which looked none too impressive downing Centre college two weeks ago and did not play last Saturday, probably will not be the only team to catch an improved Minnesota aggregation on the rebound. Michigan, Notre Dame, Iowa, Northwestern and Wisconsin complete the Gopher schedule and the northmen are going to take Saturday's stunning defeat out on some of those teams—if not all.

Ohio State's skyrocketing Buckeyes, impressive in their opening victory against Texas Christian, came back Saturday to whip Purdue 13 to 0 and next Saturday journey to southern California, which lost to Washington 7 to 0. Ohio, playing with dash and determination, handcuffed the brilliant Cecil Isbell at every turn and played alert football to win a victory which stamps the team as a definite title threat.

The Michigan-Northwestern game at Evanston looms as a bitter battle. Northwestern whipped Iowa State 33 to 0, but the State Cyclones did not show enough to give the Wildcats much of a thrill. Michigan, which lost a thriller to Michigan State, 19 to 14, showed improvement over Wolverine teams of the past several seasons.

Wisconsin downed Marquette 12 to 0 and will be favored to take Chicago, which lost to Vanderbilt at Nashville, 18 to 0. Notre Dame's Irish looked impressive in downing Drake 21 to 0 and will be heavy favorites to put the first defeat on the record of Illinois, which had to accept a scoreless deadlock from a strong DePaul eleven. Iowa, which was idle Saturday, entertains Bradley Tech of Illinois.

Goslin Is Released From Detroit Club

DETROIT, Oct. 4.—Leon (Goose) Goslin, a major league outfielder so good he stayed 17 years, looked for a job today after being given his unconditional release by the Detroit Tiger baseball club.

Goslin's objective was a coaching or managerial job.
